Museum Pass Q & A

1. Who can borrow a museum pass?

Any adult resident/property owner in West Deptford who owns a valid West Deptford Free Public Library card is eligible to check out a pass. We ask that a household check out only one pass at a time, due to the popularity of the passes.

2. How and where do I pick up a pass?

All passes must be picked up by the cardholder at the West Deptford Free Public Library Circulation Desk. The cardholder must show ID to a staff person and fill out a loan agreement for the pass.

3. How and where do I return a pass?

All passes must be returned to the West Deptford Free Public Library Circulation Desk. The pass must be returned to a staff person in the case in which it was checked out. The loan agreement must be completed by the cardholder and the staff person. Any passes placed in the book return will be considered one day late and a $5 fee will be charged to the patron's account.

4. How long may I keep a pass?

A museum pass may be checked out for 4 days and is not renewable. Households are permitted one usage per museum pass type every 7 days. Exceptions to this limit will not be available due to weather conditions, limited exhibit accessibility or other unforeseen circumstances. Please plan accordingly.

5. What is the late fee or replacement fee?

A late fee of $5.00 per day will apply with a maximum of $50.00. Any pass that is more than 10 days overdue will be considered lost. The charge for a lost museum pass is a $25.00 service fee plus any overdue fees and the replacement cost. There is a $5.00 fee for loss or damage of the case.

6. How do I find out more information about an attraction?

Check the website of each attraction or call before your visit to note current hours, special exhibits, etc.
