Museum Pass Q & A

1. Who can borrow a museum pass?

Any adult resident/property owner in West Deptford who owns a valid West Deptford Free Public Library card is eligible to check out a pass. We ask that a household check out only one pass at a time, due to the popularity of the passes.

2. How and where do I pick up a pass?

All passes must be picked up by the cardholder at the West Deptford Free Public Library Circulation Desk. The cardholder must show ID to a staff person and fill out a loan agreement for the pass.

3. How and where do I return a pass?

All passes must be returned to the West Deptford Free Public Library Circulation Desk. The pass must be returned to a staff person in the case in which it was checked out. The loan agreement must be completed by the cardholder and the staff person.

4. How long may I keep a pass?

A museum pass may be checked out for 4 days and is not renewable.

5. What is the late fee or replacement fee?

A late fee of $5.00 per day will apply with a maximum of $25.00. Any pass that is more than 5 days overdue will be considered lost. The charge for a lost museum pass is a $25.00 service fee plus any overdue fees and the replacement cost. There is a $5.00 fee for loss or damage of the case.

6. How do I find out more information about an attraction?

Check the website of each attraction or call before your visit to note current hours, special exhibits, etc.
